AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d Day of March, 1747.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS in purſuance of the Powers veſted in his Majeſty by an Act paſſed in the Nineteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, to enable his Majeſty to make Rules, Orders and Regulations more effectually to prevent the ſpreading of the Diſtemper which now rages amongſt the Horned Cattle in this Kingdom, under the Penalties thereby inflicted; which Act is explained and continued by another Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of the laſt Parliament; His Majeſty hath thought fit, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to make and eſtabliſh, from Time to Time, ſuch Rules, Orders and Regulations as were judged to be the moſt proper and effectual to put a Stop to the ſaid Diſtemper: And whereas his Majeſty was pleaſed by his Order in Council of the 8th of September laſt, to require and direct, (amongſt other Things) That a Prohibition ſhould be laid on the Buying, Selling and Removing of all lean Horned Cattle in that Part of this Kingdom called England, for the Space of three Calendar Months, which Prohibition has been ſince continued by ſeveral ſubſequent Orders, and is ſtill in Force: And whereas it hath been repreſented to his Majeſty, That for the better enabling his Subjects to ſtock their Grounds with a freſh Supply of Cattle, it will be expedient at this Seaſon of the Year, to permit lean Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, Steers and Heifers, to be driven, removed, bought and ſold; His Majeſty taking the ſame into his Conſideration, and being deſirous to comply with every Thing that may be for the Eaſe and Convenience of his Subjects, as far as the preſent Circumſtances of the ſaid Diſtemper will permit, hath therefore thought fit, and doth, by this his Order in his Privy Council, declare and order, That the ſeveral Rules and Regulations relating to the Diſtemper'd Cattle now ſubſiſting, and which will expire on the 24th of this Inſtant March, be continued and remain in full Force from the ſaid 24th of this Inſtant March, to the 8th Day of April next, and no longer; and that all the ſaid Rules and Regulations do from thenceforth ceaſe and determine: And his Majeſty doth hereby eſtabliſh in Lieu thereof, the following Rules, Orders and Regulations, to be obſerved and obeyed from the ſaid 8th Day of April next, by all his Majeſty's Subjects, as they will anſwer the contrary; Provided nevertheleſs that nothing herein contained ſhall extend to indemnify ſuch Perſons as have been guilty of any Offence or Offences againſt any of the ſaid former Orders of Council, during the Time of their Continuance in Force, from the Penalties inflicted by the ſaid Acts.

That all Cowkeepers, Farmers and Owners of any Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, Steers and Heifers, do, as ſoon as any of the ſaid Cattle ſhall appear to have Signs or Marks of the ſaid Diſtemper, immediately remove ſuch Cattle to ſome Place diſtant from the Reſt, and cauſe the ſame to be ſhot dead, or otherwiſe killed, (with as little Effuſion of Blood as may be) and the Bodies to be buried with the Skins and Horns on, within Twenty-four Hours at fartheſt, from and after the ſaid Cattle were firſt reſpectively ſeized with the ſaid Diſtemper, at leaſt four Feet deep, and the Earth covered in, having firſt cut and ſlaſhed the Hides from Head to Tail, and in other Parts of the Body, ſo as to render the ſame of no Uſe; and in caſe any ſuch Cattle ſhall happen to die, that they do bury the Bodies thereof, and cut and ſlaſh their Hides in the Manner above-mentioned, within the Space of Eight Hours at moſt after ſuch Death.

That the Overſeers of the Poor in every Pariſh, Townſhip or Place throughout the Kingdom dom where the Infection now is, do, on or before the 8th Day of April next, give or ſend Notice in Writing to the Clerk of the Peace of the County within which ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place lies, that the Infection is in ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip or Place: — And that the Overſeers of the Poor in every Pariſh, Townſhip or Place, where the Diſtemper ſhall hereafter happen to appear, do ſend the like Notice in Writing within five Days at fartheſt after the firſt Appearance of the ſaid Diſtemper in ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip or Place.

That if the Diſtemper ſhall happen to come into any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, in any County or Counties, near to the Confines of any other County or Counties, the Overſeers of the Poor of ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, do ſend Notice thereof in Writing to the Clerk of the Peace of ſuch County as ſhall reach to, within the Diſtance of three Miles of ſuch infected Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place.

That the Clerk of the Peace do forthwith ſend Copies of the Notice he ſhall ſo receive from the Overſeers of the Poor, to the chief Magiſtrate, or where there ſhall be none, to the Overſeers of the Poor of every Market Town within his County, as alſo to every High Conſtable within the ſaid County.

That ſuch chief Magiſtrate, or Overſeers of the Poor in every Market Town, ſhall affix a Paper upon the Market Houſe, or ſome other more publick Place in the Town, containing the Names of all the infected Places in that County which have been notified to him by the Clerk of the Peace, and of the Pariſhes within which ſuch reſpective Places ſhall lie, and ſhall alſo proclaim, or cauſe the ſame to be proclaimed in open Market every Market Day.

And for the better preventing Perſons from driving Cattle near any infected Place, every High Conſtable do affix a Paper in ſome convenient and viſible Place on every High Road within his Diviſion, containing the Names of all the infected Places in that County which have been notified to him by the Clerk of the Peace, and of the Pariſhes within which ſuch reſpective Places ſhall lie, and do from Time to Time renew the ſame, as ſuch Paper ſhall be obliterated or effaced by the Weather, or any other Accident.

That when the Diſtemper ſhall have ceaſed in any one Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, for the Space of Forty Days, the Miniſter and Overſeers of the Poor of ſuch Pariſh ſhall ſign a Certificate ſignifying the ſame; which Certificate ſhall be lodged with the Clerk of the Peace, who ſhall forthwith give Notice thereof to ſuch chief Magiſtrate or Overſeers of the Poor in each Market Town, and to each of the High Conſtables, who ſhall forthwith ſtrike out the Name of ſuch Place ſo certified for, from the Liſt of infected Places ſo directed to be affixed up as aforeſaid.

That no Perſon do drive or remove, or cauſe to be driven or removed, any Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer, or Heifer, whether fat or lean, that ſhall be within the Compaſs of one Mile of any infected Place, unleſs from one Paſture to another, or to Water, or for the Purpoſe of ſlaughtering ſuch Cattle, and ſhall not, on any Pretence whatſoever, remove ſuch Cattle further than one Mile from ſuch infected Place.

That with Regard to ſuch Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, Steers and Heifers, as ſhall be out of the Diſtance of one Mile from any infected Place, that they ſhall not be driven beyond the Diſtance of five Miles without having firſt obtained a Certificate under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals of one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners of the Land Tax qualified to act herein, ſpecifying the Colours of the Beaſts, the Name or Names, and Place or Places of Abode of the Owner or Owners, as alſo the Name or Names of the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall drive the ſame; and that on Examination upon Oath of one or more credible Perſon or Perſons, it appeared to him or them, that the ſaid Cattle, and the Herd or Herds out of which the ſame was or were taken, was or were at that Time, and had been for the Space of Forty Days before the Date of ſuch Certificate, entirely free from the ſaid Diſtemper or Infection, and that the ſaid Cattle have not, to the beſt of his Knowledge and Belief, been within one Mile of any infected Place; which Certificate the Perſon or Perſons buying ſuch Cattle ſhall produce to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall demand to ſee the ſame.

That as often as any Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer or Heifer, ſhall paſs from one County or Riding to another County or Riding, the Perſon or Perſons driving the ſame ſhall apply to the firſt Juſtice of the Peace, or Commiſſioner of the Land Tax as aforeſaid, in each County or Riding, and ſhall produce the Certificate or Certificates which have been granted to him in every County through which he has paſſed, to ſuch Juſtice or Commiſſioner, which Juſtice or Commiſſioner ſhall, upon View thereof, and examining the Party upon Oath touching the Reality of ſuch Certificate or Certificates, and the Identity and Health of the Cattle, and to their not having paſſed nearer to any infected Place than one Mile, grant him a new Certificate: And that all Cattle driven contrary hereto, ſhall be ſtopped on the Spot, and the Driver or Drivers thereof ſhall be forthwith carried before the next Juſtice of the Peace, to be puniſhed as the aforementioned Act of Parliament directs.

If any Perſon ſhall in his Way or Paſſage through any County, drive any Cattle as aforeſaid within the Diſtance of one Mile of an infected Place, the ſaid Cattle ſhall be ſtopped, and not permitted to be removed from the Place where they ſhall be ſo ſtopped beyond the Diſtance of three Miles, without particular Leave obtained for that Purpoſe from two Juſtices of the Peace of the Quorum, who before granting

ſuch Leave ſhall receive full Proof of the Health of ſuch Cattle.

If any Cattle ſhall be ſtopped, and afterwards conveyed away without obtaining ſuch Leave as is before directed, the Conſtable of the Townſhip where the ſaid Cattle were ſtopped, or where they ſhall be kept, ſhall be obliged to purſue the ſaid Cattle with all Expedition; and if they be out of the Conſtablewick before he can overtake them, he ſhall give Notice to the next Conſtable of the Road they have taken; and if the next Conſtable cannot overtake them, he ſhall give Notice to the Conſtable of the next adjoining Pariſh, and ſo on till they are overtaken, or till they are out of the County; and if they eſcape out of the County, the laſt Conſtable of that County where they were ſtopped, ſhall give Notice to the next Conſtable of the adjoining County, who ſhall be obliged likewiſe to purſue the ſaid Cattle, and give Notice to the next Conſtable; which Method ſhall be continued till the ſaid Cattle are overtaken and ſtopped, and which Cattle are to be treated as having been within one Mile of an Infected Place.

That no Perſon do buy, ſell, or expoſe, or offer to Sale, or cauſe to be bought, ſold, or expoſed, or offered to Sale, in any Fair or Market, or any Town, Pariſh, or Extraparochial Place whatſoever, within that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called England, or ſhall bring or ſend, or cauſe to be brought or ſent to any Fair, Market or Town, Pariſh or Extraparochial Place whatſoever, within that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called England, any Raw Hide or Skin of any Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer or Heifer, unleſs the Owner or Owners of ſuch Hide or Skin ſhall deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, to the Clerk of the Market, or elſe to ſome Conſtable, Church-warden, Overſeer of the Poor, or ſuch other Perſon as ſhall be appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof, as the Caſe ſhall happen to be, a Certificate under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals of one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners of the Land Tax as aforeſaid, ſpecifying the Colours of the ſaid Hides and Skins, the Name or Names, and Place or Places of Abode of the Owner or Owners of ſuch Hides and Skins; and that upon Examination on the Oath of one or more credible Perſon or Perſons, it appeared to him or them, that the Beaſts from which ſuch Hides or Skins were taken, were ſound and free from Infection; and that upon Sale of ſuch Hide or Skin, the Clerk of the Market, Conſtable, Church-warden, Overſeer of the Poor, or other Officer receiving ſuch Certificate as aforeſaid, ſhall either make an Endorſement thereon, that the ſaid Hides or Skins deſcribed as in the ſaid Certificate is ſpecified, were ſold in ſuch Fair, Market, Town, or other Place, and deliver the ſame to the Buyer, or elſe grant him a new Certificate to the ſame Purpoſe. And that ſuch Hide or Skin ſhall not be bought or ſold a ſecond Time without ſuch Certificate; and this Method to be repeated upon every ſubſequent Sale of ſuch Hide or Skin; and that no ſuch Hide or Skin be ſuffered to be carried Coaſtwiſe, without producing ſuch Certificate to the Officers of the Cuſtoms, at the reſpective Places where they ſhall be ſhipped, as likewiſe at the Places where they ſhall be landed.

And in Caſe any Hide or Skin ſhall hereafter be brought, ſent, or cauſed to be brought, ſent or bought, ſold, or expoſed or offered to Sale, contrary to this his Majeſty's Order of Council, that then ſuch Hide or Skin ſhall be cut, ſlaſhed, and buried in the ſame Manner as is herein before required to be done, with reſpect to the Hides or Skins of the Cattle that ſhall be killed.

And his Majeſty doth hereby ſtrictly charge and command, that no Perſon do preſume to alter or counterfeit any Certificate already granted or hereafter to be granted, for the Removing, Driving, or Sale of any ſuch Beaſt, Hide, or Skin as aforeſaid, or to ſell or cauſe to be ſold, or expoſe or offer to Sale, any Beaſt, Hide, or Skin with ſuch Certificate ſo altered or counterfeited, upon Pain of being ſtrictly proſecuted for the ſaid Offence.

That the Church-wardens, Overſeers of the Poor, Conſtables, and ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof, or ſome or one of them, do ſtop any Cattle which ſhall be driven, or any Hides or Skins that ſhall be carried contrary to this Order, or to the ſaid Acts of Parliament, and carry the Offender or Offenders before ſome Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, to be puniſhed according to the aforeſaid Act.

And for the better preventing the Spreading of the ſaid Diſtemper by the holding Fairs and Markets, or other publick Places for Sale of Cattle, his Majeſty doth, by this his Order in his Privy Council, hereby authorize and empower the Juſtices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Seſſions, or at any Adjournment thereof within their reſpective Counties, to put a Stop to the Buying and Selling of any of the ſaid Sorts of Cattle in any Fairs, Markets, or any other publick Place of Sale, where they ſhall apprehend the holding thereof may be attended with the Danger of Spreading the ſaid Diſtemper.

And his Majeſty doth hereby ſtrictly forbid the ſending, driving or removing, or cauſing to be ſent, driven or removed, any ſuch Cattle to any Fair, Market; or other publick Place of Sale ſo prohibited; and the ſaid Juſtices in their General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof, are hereby authorized and required to cauſe ſuch publick publick Notice to be given of the putting a Stop to ſuch Fair, Market, or other publick Place of Sale as aforeſaid, as they ſhall think reaſonable; and the Day to be ſo appointed by them for the ceaſing thereof, ſhall be the Time from which the ſame ſhall be deemed to be prohibited: And they are likewiſe to iſſue their Orders to the chief Conſtable or Headborough of the Hundred, Lathe, Rape or Wapentake, and to the Petty Conſtables of the reſpective Pariſhes within the ſame, to prevent the holding ſuch Fair, Market, or other publick Place of Sale; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall preſume to drive, remove or ſend, or cauſe to be driven, removed or ſent, any ſuch Cattle to ſuch Fair, Market, or other publick Place of Sale, contrary to the Orders ſo iſſued in that Behalf, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending, ſhall be carried before ſome Neighbouring Juſtice to be dealt with according to Law.

That no Perſon or Perſons do buy, ſell, or expoſe, or offer to Sale, or cauſe to be bought, ſold, or expoſed, or offered to Sale, the Whole or any Part of the Hide, Milk, Carcaſs, Fleſh, Fat or Intrails of any infected Beaſt, or feed or cauſe to be fed any Hog, Calf, Lamb, or any other Animal therewith.

That no Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer or Heifer, either fat or lean, ſhall be driven or removed, but between the Hours of Four in the Morning and Eight at Night.

And his Majeſty doth hereby further order, That no Perſon do preſume, either by refuſing to ſtop his Cattle, by making Reſiſtance, by privately conveying away ſuch Cattle after they are ſtopped, or by any other Means whatſoever, to obſtruct any Conſtable, Church-warden, Overſeer of the Poor, or other Perſon to be appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof as aforeſaid, in the Execution of the Powers or Directions given, or to be given, in purſuance of this Order; and that whoſoever ſhall diſobey any of the Rules, Orders, or Regulations appointed by this his Majeſty's Order of Council, ſhall be ſtrictly proſecuted for the Penalty inflicted by the ſaid Act; and in caſe any chief Magiſtrates in Market Towns, High Conſtables, Clerks of the Peace, Church-wardens, Overſeers, Conſtables, and other Perſon or Perſons to be appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof, ſhall be guilty of any Neglect or Failure of his or their Duty, in all or any of the Matters hereby required of them, that they be liable to the Penalties inflicted by the ſaid Act, and be proſecuted for the ſame.

And his Majeſty doth hereby impower and require the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſeveral Counties and Ridings, at their reſpective General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof, to appoint one or more Perſon or Perſons, with proper Salaries, to inſpect the Houſes, Buildings, Grounds and Cattle within the reſpective Diviſions in each County and Riding, where any Infection now is or hereafter ſhall appear to be, or be likely to come; and to do every other Thing according to this Order: — And the ſaid Juſtices are likewiſe hereby empowered at ſuch General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof, to make ſuch Rules and Regulations for putting an End to, and preventing the Spreading of the ſaid Infection, as ſhall be adapted to the particular Exigencies of each County, ſo that the ſame be not contradictory to this preſent Order, and to give all proper and neceſſary Inſtructions to the Conſtables, Churchwardens, Overſeers, and other Perſon or Perſons to be appointed by them as aforeſaid, and to do whatever elſe ſhall be neceſſary to render this Order moſt effectual: And do cauſe all Expences attending the Execution of this Service, to be provided for out of the County Rates, or County Stock; and they are hereby required to tranſmit to his Majeſty's Privy Council, from Time to Time, a particular Account of their Proceedings, as they will anſwer the contrary.

And for the more effectual carrying into Execution the Rules Orders and Regulations herein contained, in thoſe Counties where the Diſtemper now is, that the ſaid Juſtices do ſubdivide and diſtribute themſelves, in order to meet in leſs Numbers, in ſuch Parts and Places as ſhall be moſt uſeful, and do meet once a Fortnight at leaſt, ſo long as the Infection continues either within the County, or in the Neighbourhood thereof, to receive Accounts from the Church-wardens and other Officers aforementioned, of what they ſhall do from Time to Time, in Purſuance of this Order, and ſuch Inſtructions as ſhall be given them as aforeſaid; to hear Complaints, and puniſh Offenders againſt theſe Rules, Orders and Regulations, and that they do lay an Account thereof before the next General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof, that the ſaid General or Quarter Seſſion may be the better enabled to tranſmit a full Account of every Thing that ſhall be done herein to his Majeſty's Privy Council, as before directed.

And his Majeſty doth further ſtrictly command all Conſtables, Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor, and ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be appointed by the Juſtices at their General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof, as ſoon as they ſhall know, or be informed, that any Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer or Heifer, within their reſpective Diſtricts, are infected, to go to and take an exact Account of the Number and Sorts of ſuch Cattle in the Poſſeſſion of any Perſon, diſtinguiſhing the Infected from ſuch as are not ſo, and to repeat thoſe Accounts weekly, and to ſee that the infected Cattle be killed as aforeſaid, ſaid, or otherwiſe to kill or cauſe them to be killed, removed and buried, according to the above-mentioned Rules, and likewiſe to ſee that all other the beforemention'd Rules, Orders and Regulations, and ſuch Directions as ſhall be given from Time to Time by the ſaid Juſtices at their General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof, be punctually performed and obey'd, and that they do, from time to time, tranſmit to the Juſtices at ſuch their Meetings, an exact Account of all that they ſhall do, or cauſe to be done in Purſuance of this Order, and likewiſe of all Neglects or Breaches thereof, and proſecute the Offenders therein before any of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, for the Penalty inflicted by the ſaid Acts, and that they do take an exact Account of all ſuch Cattle as ſhall be killed as aforeſaid, either by them or by the Owners, in Purſuance of the aforeſaid Regulations, and tranſmit the ſame to the ſaid Juſtices at their General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof, together with the true and real Values of ſuch Cattle, as do not exceed the reſpective Sums of Forty Shillings each for all but Calves, and Five Shillings reſpectively for Calves, at the reſpective Times immediately before they were infected; and that they take particular Care, that the Owners do divide their Cattle into as many ſmall Parcels as their Ground will admit of, and at ſome reaſonable Diſtance from each other, and that they do carefully gather or cauſe to be gathered up the Dung of all infected Cattle, and that the ſame be buried deep under Ground.

And for encouraging the Owners of ſuch Infected Cattle to pay ſtrict Obedience to this Order, his Majeſty doth hereby promiſe, That they ſhall be paid by the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for every ſuch infected Beaſt which ſhall be killed and buried according to the ſaid Rules within twenty four Hours at fartheſt from and after the ſaid Cattle were firſt reſpectively ſeized with the ſaid Diſtemper, one Moiety, or half the Value of ſuch Cattle, not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings for each of the ſaid Sorts, excepting Calves, and not exceeding Five Shillings for each Calf, the Numbers, Values, and Conformities to the above-mentioned Rules to be aſcertained by the Oaths of one Conſtable, Church-warden, Overſeer, or other Perſon to be appointed by the Juſtices as aforeſaid; or in caſe the ſame cannot be had, of ſome other credible Witneſs, and alſo of the Owner or Owners thereof, if the ſame can be had, or otherwiſe of the Herdſman, or other Servant of ſuch Owner or Owners, having Charge of the ſaid Cattle, to be taken before his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace at their General Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof; which Juſtices, or any two of them, ſhall at ſuch Seſſion certify under their Hands the Sums of Money which ſuch Owners ſhall appear to their Satisfaction intitled to, by Virtue of this Order for infected Beaſts killed, ſlaſhed, and buried; and when any Owner or Owners of infected Cattle apply to ſuch Juſtices in their General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof, to obtain ſuch Certificate, the ſaid Juſtices are carefully to enquire upon Oath, at what Time the Symptoms of the ſaid Diſtemper firſt appeared upon the ſaid Cattle reſpectively, when they were reſpectively killed, and when reſpectively buried, and where and how deep, and whether the Earth was covered over them, and when, and to have the ſame verified upon the Oath of the Owner or Owners of the ſaid Cattle, if the ſame can be had, or otherwiſe of the Herdſman, or other Servant of ſuch Owner or Owners having Charge of the ſaid Cattle, and alſo of the Perſon or Perſons to be appointed by the Juſtices as aforeſaid, or Pariſh Officer who viſited the ſaid Cattle; and where there was no ſuch Perſon or Pariſh Officer, of a credible Witneſs. And his Majeſty doth hereby further order and command, That the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace do grant the ſaid Certificates gratis, purſuant to the Directions of the Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of the laſt Parliament; and that they do not ſuffer the Clerk of the Peace, or any others, under any Pretence whatſoever, to take any Fee or Reward for making out ſuch Certificates or Liſts as before directed, or for any Acts done in Relation thereto; and that neither ſuch Clerks of the Peace, nor any other Perſon or Perſons any way employed or concerned in the iſſuing ſuch Certificates, do preſume to ask, demand, receive or take any Fee, Reward, Gratuity or Sum of Money whatſoever, under Pretence of making out ſuch Certificates or Liſts, or for any Act or Thing done in Relation thereto; and that the like Directions be obſerved by the Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, and their Clerks, in granting all other Certificates required to be given by this preſent Order relating to the Diſtemper'd Cattle.

And his Majeſty doth hereby require all his Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax as aforeſaid, the chief Magiſtrates in Market Towns, Church-wardens, Overſeers, Conſtables, and other Perſons to be appointed by the Juſtices in their General or Quarter Seſſion, or an Adjournment thereof, to be careful and diligent in cauſing all the Rules, Orders, and Regulations aforementioned, to be ſtrictly obſerved and carried into due Execution; and that all Farmers, Cowkeepers, and others, do conform themſelves thereto.

And whereas the Lords of his Majeſty's Privy Council did, by their Order on the Twenty-fifth of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five, nominate and appoint certain Juſtices of the Peace to take due Order and Care, in relation to the infected Cattle in the County of Middleſex, by purſuing the ſame Methods that were uſed in the Year 1714, which Juſtices have appointed Inſpectors or Surveyors, and have from Time to Time reported to the Lords of his Majeſty's Privy Council therein.—And whereas it will create a great and unneceſſary Expence if the Juſtices of the Peace ſhould appoint particular Inſpectors for every Diviſion in the ſaid County of Middleſex, his Majeſty doth therefore hereby require and command, that the Juſtices named in the ſaid Order do proceed in the Execution of the ſame, and do likewiſe put in Execution this his Majeſty's Order of Council within the County of Middleſex.

And his Majeſty doth hereby recommend it to all Cowkeepers, Farmers, and other Perſons, that they do cauſe all the Hay which ſuch infected Cattle have breathed upon, and all the Hay, Straw or Litter that they have touched, or has been near them, to be forthwith removed and burnt, and that no Perſon, who ſhall attend any infected Cattle, ſhall go near the ſound ones in the ſame Clothes; and that they do cauſe the Houſes or Buildings, where any ſuch infected Cattle ſhall have ſtood, to be cleared from all Dung and Filth, and ſhall cauſe wet Gunpowder, Pitch, Tar, or Brimſtone to be fired or burnt in ſeveral Parts of ſuch Buildings, at the ſame Time keeping in the Smoke as much as poſſible, and that the ſame be afterwards frequently waſhed with Vinegar and warm Water, and that no ſound Cattle be put therein for two Months at leaſt.

And for the better notifying of this Order, it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that the ſame be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and be alſo inſerted in the next London Gazette, and be likewiſe read in all

St. James's, March 24.

This Day the following Addreſs was preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, Preſident of the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury, the Biſhops and Clergy of the ſame Province, in Convocation aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbiſhop, Biſhops, and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury in Convocation aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, and to renew thoſe Profeſſions of Fidelity and Obedience to your Majeſty, which we have often ſolemnly made, and which proceed from fix'd and unalterable Principles in our Hearts.

Your Majeſty's paternal Care of your Kingdoms, exerted in the vigilant Defence of them againſt the Encroachments of an ambitious foreign Enemy, and the wicked and traiterous Attempts of Domeſtick ones, in your ſtrict Adherence to the Laws, and your wiſe Concern and Proviſion for the regular and equal Adminiſtration of them, in your merciful and generous Uſe of your Prerogative, in your Preſervation of our eſtabliſh'd Church (the pureſt Model of Eccleſiaſtical Government) conſiſtently with the Rights and Liberties of all your Subjects, and in a moſt extenſive Attention to every Thing that can make us a flouriſhing and happy People, is the Subject of our daily Obſervation and daily Praiſe. By ſuch a Conduct your Majeſty has juſtly attain'd that Sovereign Degree of Affection and Reverence to your Royal Perſon, which is the true Glory of a King, and the firmeſt Support of his Throne.

It was Matter of the utmoſt Satisfaction to your faithful Clergy, and afforded them the moſt comfortable Proſpect of your happy Reign, that, at the Beginning of it, your Majeſty was pleas'd to give them the moſt early Aſſurances of your firm Reſolution to maintain the Church of England, and to ſecure to us the free Profeſſion of our moſt holy Religion.—Your Majeſty has kept your Royal Word, and we cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Thankfulneſs for that Conſtancy and Zeal with which your Majeſty has protected the Proteſtant Cauſe, both in your own Dominions, and wherever elſe it is profeſs'd.

We take the preſent Opportunity, by your gracious Permiſſion, to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is our ſteady Reſolution to do every Thing within the Compaſs of our Profeſſion, and which may be in our Power, to make your Government eaſy and your Reign glorious; and, as the beſt Teſtimony of our Sincerity towards God, and the ſureſt Method of drawing down his Bleſſings on the Arms and Councils of your Majeſty, we will make it our Buſineſs, as it is our Duty, to explain the Doctrines, live up to the Rules, and copy the Temper enjoin'd us by our excellent Religion; the natural Means of preſerving and exalting a Chriſtian Nation, and (if God for our Sins does not ſuſpend thoſe good Effects) of ſtopping the Mouth of Infidelity, and checking the Spirit of that Licentiouſneſs, which abounds to the Diſhonour, and tends to the Ruin of our Country.

It is a Maxim taught us by Experience, which will, we truſt, for ever ſecure your Majeſty, and your Deſcendants, in the Poſſeſſion of this Imperial Crown, that the People of Great Britain can never be ſafe and happy, but under this limited Monarchy, adminiſter'd according to our Laws and Conſtitution, and in keeping clear of the Yoke of that corrupted and intolerable Religion, which is not more repugnant to the Goſpel of Chriſt, than it is to the natural Rights and Intereſts of Men.

May the good Providence of God, Sir, ever protect your ſacred Perſon; may your Reign be long and proſperous, and may there never be wanting in your Royal Family, a Race of Princes, who, after the Example of your Majeſty, ſhall be the Defenders of our Faith, and the Guardians of our Civil Liberties againſt all the Attempts of Popery and arbitrary Power.

To which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

My Lords, and the reſt of the Clergy,

THeſe affectionate Aſſurances of your Duty and Fidelity to me, and of your Zeal for my Government, give me great Satisfaction. I have nothing more at Heart, than the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Intereſt, both at Home and Abroad; and it ſhall continue to be my particular Care to protect and ſupport the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſhed, and the Religious and Civil Rights of all my People.

Weſtminſter, March 25.

His Majeſty came this Day to the Houſe of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes, ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, the Honourable Mr. Bellenden, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from his Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majeſty was pleaſed to give the Royal Aſſent to,

An Act for impowering George Montgomerie and Thomas Byrd Eſquires, and Ezra Patching, to compleat an Undertaking for furniſhing the Inhabitants of the ſeveral Pariſhes and Places of Stratford, Weſt-ham, Bow, Bromley, Mile-end, Stepney, and other Pariſhes and Places adjacent with Water, and for better ſecuring their Property in ſuch Undertaking.

Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange, and the young Prince, are in perfect Health; but the young Princeſs was Yeſterday taken ill with the Meaſles, though in a favourable Manner.
